Dandi March

- In 1930, Gandhiji declared that he would lead a march to break the salt law. According to this law, the state had a monopoly on the manufacture and sale of salt. Mahatma Gandhi along with other nationalists reasoned that it was sinful to tax salt since it is such an essential item of our food.
- Gandhiji and his 80 followers marched 241 miles from Sabarmati Ashram to coastal town of Dandi (now located in Navasari district, Gujarat)where they broke the government law by gathering natural salt found on the sea shore, and boiling sea water to produce salt.
- Salt Satyagraha March started on 12th March 1930 from Sabarmati Ashram and reached Dandi after 24 days on 6th April 1930.
